

Radoslav Hristov Yordanov has a Master in Accounting and Control degree. He is a certified accountant and has an internationally recognized certificate from ACCA. He has a diverse background in the field of financial audit and worked as an accountant, assistant auditor in a registered auditor's firm, assistant auditor, auditor, responsible auditor and a senior manager of the audit and consulting company PricewaterhouseCoopers. Currently, he works as a financial manager in subsidiaries of a banking group and in several of them is a member of their respective "Board of Directors".